QUOTE

The Lord promised that if we follow the prophet, "the gates of hell shall not prevail against us, and the Lord will disperse the powers of darkness from before us." I know that God guides us through a living prophet and if we listen to the prophet's words and follow his council, we will know we are on the right path to navigate this world full of conflict and challenges (reference Elder Anderson's 2017 talk, "The Voice of the Lord")
